

A little bit about me...

As a 2006 graduate of Elmira College with a degree in Business Management, I have always had the goal to one day own my own business.

With a passion for skin care, I went on to study at the Continental School of Beauty in Rochester NY, where I received my Esthetic license in 2007 and Nail Technician license in 2008.

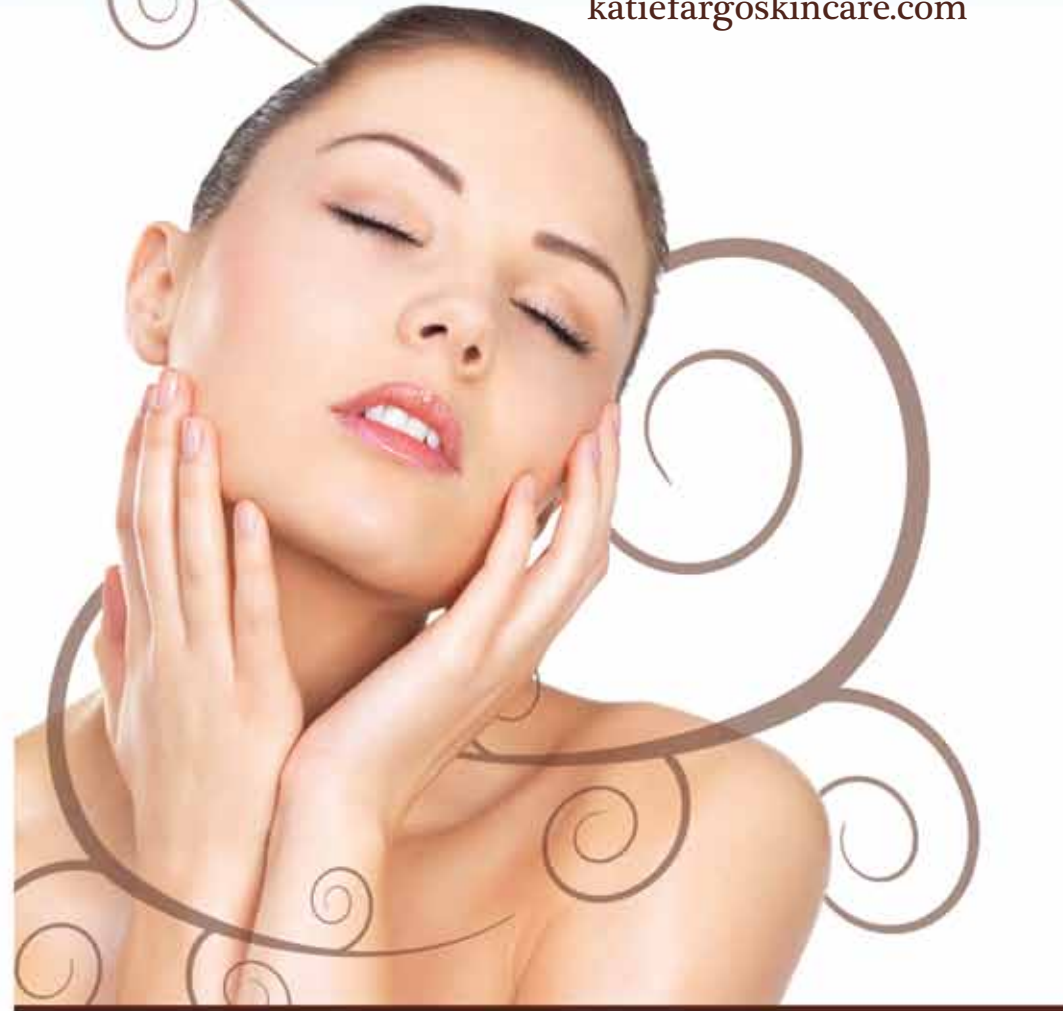

Since graduating in 2007, I have gone on to work at several spas including two Medical Spas in Horseheads NY. During this time, I was fortunate enough to work under talented Facial Plastic Surgeons and Skin Care Specialists where I developed an expertise in skin treatments for rosacea, hyperpigmentation, hormonal skin issues, and acne.

I am known for my luxurious, healing facial treatments and take pride in providing each of my clients with a unique experience. I tailor each facial to his or her needs based on a detailed skin analysis and individual lifestyles.
